Washington, June 23.—A despatch from Ottowa says that in the Canadian Parliament Mr. Galt moved for the indemnification of the Government for expenses incurred during the recent Femian troubles.
Several members of the Government party advocated the move, when Mr. Chambers, of Brockville, obtained the floor and spoke against it. He said that Canada could not support troops enough to resist the United States. 1,000 Femians was a very different matter from 35,000,000 of Americans.
He also called for an investigation of the conduct of some of the commanders of the provisional troops, during the recent trouble with the Femians, and denounced the management of the volunteers as a blunder. Mr. Chambers was continually interrupted and hissel, the nproar becoming so great at times as to drown his remarks.
He was replied to by Mr. Darcy Magee, and the motion of Mr. Galt was adopted. ment Mr. Galt moved for the indemnifica-

WASHINGTON, June 23. - In the Senate, a joint resolution was passed, providing for an official history of the rebellion, and au-an official history of the rebellion, and authorizing the Secretary of War to appoint some competent person to write it, at a salary not exceeding $2,500 per year. The tax bill was considered, and various amendments offered and adopted. Mr. Morgan delivered a culogy on Mr. Humphreys, deceased, after which the Senate adjourned. In the House, Mr. Washburne presented a letter from the Secretary of the Navy on the subject of the apprehended introduction of the rinderpest by means of importated bones, which was referred to the Committee on Commerce. Mr. Dodge, of New York, and others, addressed the House in a speech of condolence on the death of Hon. Mr. Humphreys, of New York. The customary resolutions of respect were adopted, and the House then adjourned.

WHO IS RESPONSIBLE?—The officials at Washington seem to be attempting at Washington seem to be attempting to shift the responsibility of the very foolish and cruel order putting Jeff. Davis in irons. It appears that the President had nothing to do with the matter, and that the order has been traced to the door of Secretary Stanton. Is he responsible for it?

[New York Herald.]

The number of lost children found wandering about New York city, the past year, was 2,742. Of this number, nearly all, with the exception of about one-twelfth, were returned to their parents and friends, the remainder being sent to Ward's Island, where they are being reared under the care of the Commissioners of Charities.

Major-General Wood, commanding at Vicksburg, has issued an order warning all persons engaged in the enlistment of negroes in his department for a foreign service, that it is an offence against the neutrality laws. The freedmen are also advised to have nothing to do with persons engaged in such unlawful business.

TERRIBLE CALAMITY.—The Boston Traveller, of the 13th inst., has the following account of a terrible catastrophe:
The Italian ship Napoleon Canevero

a crew of forty, and 663 coolie emigrants, bound to Callao. Part of the cargo consisted of 8,000 boxes of Chinese fire-crackers. A few hours of the leaving post the effects of the Chinese fire-crackers. A few hours after leaving port, the officers of the ship discovered that there was a plot among the cooles to poison them, and that 200 had agreed to revolt, and, if possible, capture the ship. Some of the ringleaders were flogged, while others were placed in irons. At 4 o'clock, the next day, the interpreter reported to the chief mate, Mr. A. F. Faw, that the cooles intended to revolt, at 5 o'clock. To the captain of the vessel, they denied any such intention, and the provisions were served to them. At a quarter past 5, the coolies revolted, and broke up the sleeping-benches, into which they had driven spikes, for weapons. They also had several knives, spades, and two cutlasses taken from the men on grard and two cutlasses taken from the men

The crew fired upon them, and, after about thirty had been shot, the captain called upon them to surrencaptain called upon them to surrender. They refused, and set fire to some stuff in the hold of the vessel, probably thinking that the crew would rush down the hatchway to extinguish it, giving the coolies below a chance to go upon deck and join their comrades. The fire rapidly increased, and the coolies again refused to surrender. Two boats were lowered and swamped: but a third was lowered in render. Two boats were lowered and swamped; but a third was lowered in safety, and several of the crew got into and put off from the ship's side. The captain, mate and supercargo were saved by swimming to one of the swamped boats, from which they were taken by the crew in the third boat lowered; but the doctor, store-keeper, interpreter and soveral others keeper, interpreter and several others of the crew perished. At 10 o'clock that night the vessel blew up, the fire having reached that part of the hold in which the 8,000 boxes of Chinese fire-crackers were stowed, and all those on board perished.

New counterfeit fifty-dollar green-backs have appeared at Nashville, Tenn. The bills are excellently engraved, except that the signature of Treasurer Spinner is not as coarse and heavy as in the original. The paper on which they are printed is a little thinner than the genuine.

Johnson's Island, Lake Eric, the abiding place of many unfortunate Confederates during the war, has been finally abandoned by the military, and all the appurtenances of war removed.

It is rumored that the New York Legislature will be convened in August to ratify the constitutional amendment.

"An Ordinance to Regulate the Water Works."

CITY CLERK'S OFFICE, COCUMBIA, June 23, 1866.

THE attention of the public is called to this Ordinance and the penalties at-tached for the violation thereof:

I this Ordinance and the penalties attached for the violation thereof:

Be it ordained, That any person who shall draw or carry away water from a spout, without having contracted so to do, shall be fined for each and every offence not exceeding twenty dollars; and any contractor for the water, who shall suffer any unauthorized person to draw or use water from his or her spout, shall be subject to a fine not exceeding twenty dollars for each and every offence. If any person shall suffer any hydrant on his or her premises to remain open so as to waste the water, except for the purpose of cleansing the pipes or to draw off the water unfit for use, such person shall be subject to a penalty not exceeding twenty dollars for each and every offence.

All persons are cautioned that to make use of the fire hydrants in the public streets is a violation of an Ordinance of the city, and the penalty attached for such a violation will in all cases be rigidly enforced. Published by order of the City Conneil.
